The following agenda points were discussed in the meeting:

1. At the very outset, the report of placement committee was discussed and reviewed. It was observed that due to COVID-19 problem, expected target of placement of students was not achieved. Hence, more targeted efforts must be exercised.
2. The members expressed their concern and suggested that students must be motivated and encouraged to undergo soft skills training programmes and the college should organize such training sessions for the students via online mode. Few ongoing webinars on such matters may be communicated to the final year students so that they may get benefited.

3. The syllabus coverage report was discussed and found satisfactory.
4. The IQAC put special emphasis on the preparation part of end semester practical exams of B.Pharm. and M.Pharm. students. All the faculty members were asked to get ready with it with regard to the arrangements of chemicals, glassware whatsoever is required for the smooth conduction of these practical examinations.
5. At the same time, the IQAC members also enquired about the forthcoming annual examinations of B.Sc. Biotechnology students. Prof. Vijay Kumar Sharma informed that necessary instructions has been issued to the HoDs as well as faculty members of B.Sc. biotechnology.
